

COLOMBA AGAIN

The Scene of a Collision Between Americans and Rebels.

Insurgents Attack Our Troops.
But Are Driven Off After Punishment.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The following cablegram came from Gen. Otis this morning: "The insurgents in considerable force appeared in the vicinity of Colomba yesterday. They were punished and driven off by Gen. Hall and men. Our casualties were one killed and six wounded."

ALL IS QUIET.

Apparently the Strike Trouble at Cleveland Has Passed.

CLEVELAND, O., July 31.—Apparently the strike trouble is all over. All was quiet here today up to noon at least. The cars were running regular on all the lines and there was no trouble nor any manifested disposition to create any. The strenuous efforts of Mayor Farley to enforce the laws and prosecute those guilty of breaking the laws seems to have set the men to thinking and hence the better order.

A part of the soldiers was moved Saturday and more went today. The presence of the militia was not regarded as necessary, the order having been greatly improved.

The boycott movement was only spread, but a reaction is expected, as the sufferers are threatening to make the plan cut both ways.

ELECTROCUTIONS

In Sing Sing Prison This Morning
—Two Murderers Die.

SING SING, N. Y., July 31.—There were two electrocutions in the prison here this morning. Lewis Pullerson, colored, was the first victim in 55 minutes. The crime for which Pullerson paid the death penalty was the checking to death of his white mistress.

Michael McDonald went to the death chair a few minutes after Pullerson's corpse was taken away. McDonald killed Stephen Titus, his paymaster, during a quarrel over wages.

OLD CHARGE.

Will Jackson Arrested for Obtaining Money Falsely.

Will Jackson, colored, was this morning arrested by Officers Crow and Jones on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. The alleged offense is stealing some furniture from Taylor Craig, an employee of the telephone company, and selling the goods as his own.

He had been at large for several months, and only recently came back to Paducah, it is said. The case against him will be tried tomorrow before Judge Sanders.

DREYFUS CASE.

Dramatic Testimony of the Soldier, Henry, Recalled.

PARIS, France, July 31.—The Figaro this morning prints, in connection with its publication of the evidence taken by the court of cassation, at the supplementary inquiry into the Dreyfus case, the testimony of Capt. De Freytagh.

The captain described the late Col. Henry's testimony at the Dreyfus court martial in 1894 as dramatic but inconclusive. Henry, pointing to Dreyfus, said: "I swear he is the traitor."

GOES OUT TODAY.

Alger, as Secretary of War, Is Concluding His Duties.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—This is Gen. R. A. Alger's last day in the office of secretary of war. He arrived at the department early and said the day would be devoted to clearing up routine affairs.

Off. Elihu Root takes hold of the office tomorrow morning as Gen. Alger's successor.

CONTROVERSY SETTLED.

Archbishop Canterbury Makes an Important Decision.

LONDON, July 31.—Archbishop Canterbury today rendered an important decision in a ritualistic controversy by announcing that from now on the burning of incense and carrying of candles in the Church of England services will be forbidden.

WELCOME ESCORT

May Be Sent to Sea From Newport to Greet Dewey.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 31.—The officers of the North Atlantic squadron now here believe the ships will be ordered to sea to meet Admiral Dewey and escort him to New York.

ENJOYMENT AT CREAL.

Mr. R. P. Stanley Has the Crowd
at the Popular Hotel.

Mr. R. P. Stanley, the genial manager of the Ozark hotel, at Creal Springs, Ill., is accommodating the crowd of the season, and this year has a more popular hostelry than ever. The well known ex-Paducahan has had charge of the Ozark for several years, and ever since he assumed charge it has been his good fortune to see it advancing in popularity.

He now gets the largest part of the visitors to Creal, especially those from Paducah, who all know the accommodation and courteous host, and know that he will always provide the best of everything for his guests.

The table sets is not to be surpassed anywhere, and the rooms are all clean and well ventilated. The beautiful appointments of the place make it all the more popular, and all who visit there speak of the highest terms of Mr. Stanley and his popular resort.

This year the crowd has been larger than ever before, but Mr. Stanley has always been equal to every emergency, and in this manner has shown his ability as a manager of one of the largest hotels in Southern Illinois, and made many new friends, as well as made himself more popular with the old.

He is destined to be more liberally patronized every year.

ONLY A BLUFF.

Wagner Did Not Really Mean to Jump Off.

Joe Belmont, or Wagner, the circus man, created some little excitement on Island Creek bridge and the vicinity Saturday night by pretending that he had jumped off.

As near as could be learned he was up near Farley's store with the band serenading, when someone came and called him out, saying that he wife wanted to see him. He went to meet her and as they were crossing the bridge, he, being in the rear, swung off the bridge, and when they looked back and missed him they ran to the spot where he hung, from the girders when he groaned, and then a great excitement was created by the panic that ensued. He said it was only to bluff his wife.

SWITCHMAN MASHED.

He Was Caught Between the Cars
and an Engine.

Dan Gardner, colored, who has been a switchman for the I. C. here for about seven or eight years, was seriously injured about 12:30 o'clock last night in the yards while coupling cars. He was attempting to chain up some cars to an engine and an engine came up and bumped it. Gardner was mangled between the engine and car.

The doctors do not think that he is necessarily dangerously hurt. He lives in town and is well known.

BIG DEATH RATE.

Is Reported From the Plague at Poonah—Alarming Increase.

BOMBAY, B. Ind., July 31.—An alarming increase of the plague at Poonah, is reported. There have been seven deaths and 350 new cases in the last forty-eight hours. The people are almost panic-stricken.

OVERSEER COOKSEY

Has a Case of Typhoid Fever and
It Is Thought Is Seriously Ill.

Overseer of the Changang Woe Cooksey is reported dangerously ill from typhoid fever. He has been down a week, and was not thought to be very ill until the latter part of last week.

This afternoon his condition was no thought to be very favorable.

MORE VOLUNTEERS RETURN.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—The first Neaskan and Utah light batteries disembarked from the transport Hancock this morning and were escorted to Presidio, where they will go into camp, by several battalions of artillery. The returning soldiers were reviewed by General Shafter and Governor Poynter, of Nebraska. Thousands turned out to see them. Women placed the veterans with roses and some placed laurel wreaths around their necks. The men are in apparently excellent condition.

FEUD CASES UP.

BARBOURSVILLE, Ky., July 31.—The Howard Baker feud murder cases were called for trial this morning. Wiley Baker was granted bail in the sum of five thousand. The case of James Baker was then called, but postponed until tomorrow. Many factions are in attendance.

IS IT A SCOOP?

WASHINGTON, July 31.—No report on the Samoa matter nor from Justice Chambers has been reached at the state department. If the report of the commission, as published in San Francisco, is genuine it is a scoop on the department.

ONCE NOTED WOMAN DEAD.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague, once the noted woman of Washington society, died at Edgewood, her country home, near here, this morning.

COUSINS MARRY

They Came Over From Illinois—
United by Judge Tully.

Left for Home at Noon Today—Could Not Marry in Their Native State.

Mr. De Witt Holt and Miss Jennie Holt, cousins, and aged respectively 25 and 35, arrived yesterday afternoon from Vergennes, Ill., their home, and this morning were at the county court house bright and early, being unable to find the county clerk yesterday, and were shown through the county jail by Deputy Jailor John Hughes, while awaiting the arrival of the officials.

At 9 o'clock Judge Tully performed the ceremony which made them man and wife and accompanied by Dr. L. O. Cox, of the same place, and a lady friend, they proceeded to take in the town until noon, when they left for home.

The groom is a farmer, and the bride looked like she might have been had she been a man. They were cousins, and for this reason came to Kentucky to marry.

SMALLER CASES

Minor Offenses Punished by the Judge This Morning.

The McCawley Case Was Somewhat Mixed and Was Continued.

John Pickett, colored, for using improper language, was fined $5 and costs.

Ruby Ray, a colored siren from "Jersey" was charged with being drunk and disorderly. She said she was drunk, but not disorderly, when asked what she was drunk on, she replied "gin, whisky, wine and beer." The court thought that a woman who could take such a prodigious variety and not become a little disorderly was a freak, and heard the evidence. The result was the woman was fined $20 and costs for the offense.

Frank Potts, an old reliable, was fined the usual dollar.

Hilyard Sanford, colored, was charged with calling Henry McCawley, colored, a son of a b—h. The evidence showed that McCawley was trying to get Sanford out of a room at the house occupied by the former, but owned by his sister, who runs one of the packagers and has paid the taxes on the property, which should have been done, according to Judge Sanders' way of looking at it, and was corroborated by his daughter, while Sanford swore that he did not, and that McCawley does not know what took place. The case was left open for further elucidation.

NEWS NOTES

If Dreyfus is acquitted he will not sue for damages, but as a matter of principle will ask for an indemnity of 20 cents. He could demand a large sum of the state for his long imprisonment on a false charge, and the state in turn could sue De Ciam, Gonsse, Mercier, Pellieux and others implicated in his convictions. This would ruin these men, as none of them are rich. Dreyfus refuses to "make money out of his wife's tears and suffering."

Lightning struck the house of Harvey H. McConnell, near Cottage Grove, in Henry county, Friday afternoon and instantly killed him and his wife, setting fire to their clothes and the house. They were in different parts of the house. Two children were in the room with Mrs. McConnell and were not hurt.

Miss Enid Yandell, a New York artist, has been awarded the prize offered for the best design for a fountain, to be erected at Providence, R. I., by Paul Pajonetti, of Turin, Italy, in honor of the memory of Garibaldi. A commission selected Miss Yandell's model in preference to numerous others submitted by sculptors of New York, Boston and Providence. Miss Yandell is a Kentucky girl and began her art education in the Cincinnati Art School. She completed her studies in Paris, and since her return from Europe has done much notable work. She is the only woman member of the National Sculptors' Society of America.

Lee T. Philpot, of Venita, I. T., who was a member of Capron's company, Roosevelt's Rough Riders, contradicts the statement that the Philpot Morris in Clay county has nothing to do with the Baker Howard feud. He attributes the trouble to politics. He adds that if it is necessary he will come to their assistance and will bring with him a mass of comrades.

SHOW PEOPLE FINED.

The managers of La Belle Park this morning pleaded guilty to showing on Sunday and were fined $10 and costs by Justice Charles Emery. The fine heretofore had been only $2. The Sunday baseball draws a larger crowd than the show, but the justice claims he has no way to reach the players, as they do not charge any admission and are not paid clubs.

CLAM IS OUT.

LONDON, July 31.—A Paris dispatch says "Paty du Clam has been liberated."

WENT TO JAIL.

Ed Houston Pleaded Guilty to Stealing From a Cook.

Ed Houston, colored, who is very much of a dude and a would be cake walker, was this morning presented in Judge Sanders' court on a charge of stealing a pair of gold rimmed glasses from the servant's room at Rev. H. B. Johnston's, on North Seventh street.

Houston was caught as he attempted to leave the premises, and dropped the glasses Saturday night before the officers got him to the city hall. He was also charged with getting 20 cents out of the cook's pocket book, and this he denied. He said he took the glasses, but knew nothing about the money. He claimed he went to see the cook about making him a collar.

Houston was held to answer and failed to give bond. He had been sporting around Paducah for quite awhile, and his last escapade is not a surprise.

RUSSIA RILED

Over France's Tendency to Rapprochement With Germany.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The tendency manifested by France toward rapprochement with Germany is causing great dissatisfaction and suspense in Russia. The newspapers express diametrically opposed to the aim of prejudice to themselves, as the Franco in strong terms their great dissatisfaction, and try to demonstrate that Russia and France could not admit Germany to their intimacy without Germany.

IS SEEING THE TOWN.

Officer H. W. Meyers, of St. Louis,
Here On a Visit.

Officer H. W. Meyers, of St. Louis, is here on a visit to Marshal Collins and other friends. He met all the Paducah boys last month when they went over with the Elks, and the impression was mutually agreeable, and he treated them so courteously, that they invited him over. He is now here and some of his friends among the Elks are looking after his welfare.

MAYFIELD WOMAN HURT.

Mrs. Charles Long Burned There
By a Coal Oil Fire.

Mrs. Charles F. Long, of Mayfield, in attempting to build a fire in the stove by the use of coal oil, was badly burned on the body and face this morning. Her clothing caught from the fire, her hair was singed off and her face was blistered. Her screams attracted the neighbors to her aid and saved her life. Medical assistance was immediately procured and she is resting as well as possible.

COOL IN NEW YORK.

President's Party Finds It So, Heat
Being Required for Mrs. M.

HOTEL CHAMBLAIN, N. Y., July 31.—President McKinley took a short stroll around the grounds this morning and later attended to official business. It is very cold here and heat is kept turned on in Mrs. McKinley's apartments.

DEATH OF A CHILD.

Ernest, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, of Meyers street, Mechanicsburg, died last night from congestion, and the funeral will take place from the residence, burial at Oak Grove, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The child had been sick only one day.

CHAMBERS RESIGNED.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The state department has not yet been officially advised of the arrival in this country of Chief Justice Chambers, of Samoa, and, in fact, it does not yet know that he has taken leave of absence as reported. Respecting that gentleman's statement that he might not return to Samoa as chief justice, it may be said that there was an expectation here, when the Samoan commission started out, that Mr. Chambers would relinquish his place in conformity with the tact arrangement to make a clean sweep of all the officials at Apia of all nationalities who had in any way been involved in troubles there. The state department has no official advice whatever from Apia.

AN OVERTURNED ENGINE.

JACKSON, Tenn., July 31.—Joseph F. Alexander, of this city, an engineer on the Illinois Central, was killed at Covington, Tenn., Saturday morning by the engine leaving the track, overturning and crushing him to death. His remains were brought here this evening for interment. He was a single man.

J. L. BOWDEN DEAD.

MAYFIELD, July 31.—John L. Bowden, of the firm of G. W. Bowden & Sons, died here Saturday morning of lung disease at the age of 28.

PROTECTION NEAR.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The gunboat Machias should reach San Domingo today. The cruiser New Orleans is expected to reach here Thursday.

YELLOW JACK

Appears at Hampton Roads Soldiers' Home Place.

Surgeon General Wyman Has Already Begun Preparations to Stamp It Out.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Yellow fever has appeared at the Hampton Roads Soldiers' Home, creating no little excitement since the fact has become known. Surgeon General Wyman, of the marine hospital service, is making active preparation to stamp the disease out and will leave no effort undone to accomplish this end. However the war department looks upon the condition as dangerous and this admission makes things serious.

There are conflicting stories as to the origin of the disease at the Home. One story is that the fever was carried there by a soldier which came from Santiago and another that it was conveyed by a sailor from the same place. But the presence of the disease is not questioned.

Later.—The garrison from Fort Monroe will be removed to some place on the northern coast.

The officials here don't conceal their alarm. It is fully realized that if the fever spreads to Norfolk, Newport News, Portsmouth, Williamsburg and other towns in that section of Virginia it will not be long before the disease will find its way to Washington and Richmond.

Surgeon General Sternberg, of the army, and Surgeon General Wyman and seven department surgeons have been ordered to the Soldiers Home. A quarantine has also been established against the infected district. Three cases died before the nature of the disease was known and there were several ill. Two more cases and one more death is the report today.

No teams or boats are running to-day for Newport News.

HEUREAUX'S LIFE OBJECT.

Was to Love Women and Fight
Men—Was an Adept.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 31.—Harry D. Pierce, of this city, and some New York friends made a tour of the West Indies and the Windward Isles last winter, stopping at Santo Domingo and Hayti. President Heureauaux then ordered them a banquet. While receiving their guests, in response to some laughing remark, President Heureauaux responded, "I live, Messieurs, to fight man and love woman," emphasizing the first as if with a sword thrust, and with the second laying his hand on his heart. "When I can't do the one I will stop doing the other and do the other." While many ladies were present Mr. Pierce says this was uttered with an innocence characteristic of the West Indian population. During the banquet the president toasted the Americans and their country.

President Heureauaux impressed Mr. Pierce as a man of singularly strong characteristics; tall, slender, wiry, athletic, hearty; almost too light for a mauler, and too powerful of his white blood and royal ancestry which he claimed. He wore a mustache and had a remarkably piercing eye, one that seemed to penetrate the person addressed.

"He seemed to be always studying his man while talking," says Mr. Pierce, "and taking his measure for every possible purpose. He was as brave as a lion, and the recitals of his personal encounters in battle were something worthy of story books. He had been wounded many times and his left arm was stiff, stiffer than that of the German emperor, but from a wound in battle, instead of an infirmity at birth. He was very proud of his wounds, and he wore a collar about his neck, opened in such a way as to display a scar which he had received in an attempt at his assassination, when, with his own hand he killed his assailant."

"He told the party with great earnestness and absolute simplicity of utterance, and without any display of braggadocio, how he had killed 21 men in the various sorts of encounters in the last seven years. Whenever an insurrection was threatened he resorted to severe measures, and his republic, like that of Venezuela, was a sort of concealed military despotism. He would, he told us, simply send out for 20 or 30 of the suspected insurrectionists, and have them promptly executed before sundown. His contests with Haiti were remarkable for the uniform success of his troops and enforcement of his diplomacy, when not interfered with by other powers, notably France."

Mr. Pierce reports that his palace was a square building looking like a fortress, and it had but one entrance which was always thoroughly guarded. The windows were barred and very narrow, and admirably adapted for defense in harboring ambuscades who could shoot into the crowd out side without exposing themselves. Mr. Pierce also describes the banquet as an event to be remembered.

CAMP MEETING.

The annual camp meeting begins day after tomorrow at Eddyville, and as usual the promises are that a large crowd will attend. From Paducah there will be a number of visitors, especially on Sundays. The meeting will hold about two weeks.

MONDAY, JULY 31, 1899.

The Hague peace commission is now a thing that is yet to be seen, but the moral influence is certain to be of good effect. The arbitration question was generally endorsed and friendship to the idea is bound to increase.

The Fulton Guard doesn't claim that everything in its county is solidly

Democratic. It says, with evident grievance: "The public, or a part of it, seems to be unusually hard to please this time in their choice for governor." And this is the report from all other sections from which the truth comes.

Expansion has made the United States. Any idea to the contrary would have left it only the New Eng land states at best. In a little more than 100 years the country has expan ded its original territory more than four and a half times. This year's promises to add further to the present possessions.

The Democrats are almost on the run.

They have decided to open their without any further delay. And the old regular is to be the first part of the state assaulted. Just think; the old rock-ribbed land needs attention first. How have conditions changed and how they will be found changed in November is yet not dreamed of by the people.

How did Kentucky go at the last state election? Is a question often asked. The last election was two years since and in that canvass there were five parties in the field, and although the state went Democratic by 17,804 plurality that party failed to poll a majority of all the votes cast. The vote stood: Republican 169,678, Dem ocratic 187,482, gold Democrats 9,562,

Populist 7,274, Prohibitionist 1,732.

call it a very common head in the paper. I call it a very common head in the paper. I call it a very com parent that the breach in the ranks of the so-called "Chicago Platform

Democrats," of Kentucky, is too wide to be repaired. There is sure to be another Democratic ticket in the field,

as a result of the Lexington conclave.

There will be a great shaking up, and the result must be the election of the Republican ticket in November, un less something miraculous happens, and we doubt if Providence would try to reconcile the warring elements.

They are doing "the Lord's work," though not in a pious or even civil manner. When they shall have ex hausted themselves in the partisan warfare; when they shall, as one has sometimes seen two game dogs do, fall apart from sheer collapse, and be unable to rise and renew the con tention, then will come silence like a poultice to heal the blows of sound; thinking succeeded to brawling and mauling. The people will realize that it was a case of quarreling about possible theories, and a union of all that is best in the state's political life will follow, of course. Let them fight it out. A fight to the finish will do them, the state and country good; and in the meantime a Republican governor shall be chosen the time for the sober second thought in the ranks of the Democratic fac tions will be given space in which to ripen."

THE SIMPLE TRUTH.

Warren County Courier: "Many

conflicting statements have been given out concerning disaffection in the Democratic party in this county.

The Courier, in the interest of absolute truth, states that there is disaffec tion of the most widespread character, and there is no occasion for the sup pression or the denial of the fact. Never in the history of the politics of the county has there been so formidable and dangerous dissatisfaction and such a determination to revolt against a so-called party nomination as at this time. The disaffection embraces fully a third of the Democrats in the county, and the larger portion of those who pronounce their purpose of voting for Goebel are simply waiting for the choice between a Democrat and a Repu blitan, and are as denunciatory of the manner of Goebel's nomination as those in open revolt. These are facts tempered with extreme moderation."

A BARE FACT.

Louisville Post: "In politics Mr

Waterson has changed his coat so often that he has worn it out. Now he says he wears no man's collar.

It was the last article of dress that remained with him, and now that he has thrown away the collar, the fear is he is left naked to his enemies."

WELL-DRESSED WOMEN.

The well-dressed woman, like the

Mr. John B. Cardin, of Louisville, is at the Palmer.

Mr. Hite D. Bowman, of Louisville, is at the Palmer.

Mr. J. C. Miller, of Lexington, is at the Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Baker left today for a two weeks visit to Edyville.

Miss Peachie Greer has gone to Edyville on a visit.

Mrs. Belle M. Baker has returned from a visit to her daughter in Edyville.

Mr. C. H. Webb, of Smithland, was in the city part of yesterday and today.

In a brief chat with a Sun reporter this morning he admitted there was an undercurrent of opposition in Edyville which indicated much hotting against the Louisville ticket, yet thought that these matters would all be in line by November. Mr. Webb, who went off in the last canvass with the gold bugs, is himself in line this year with the Goebelites.

Mr. Ellis M. Headley, of the Louisville Job Printing company, is at the Palmer house on business.

Mr. Ed Clark, who has been with Kamelet's grocery for the past three years has resigned his position to go to Dexter, Mo., where he will open a butcher shop.

Postmaster F. M. Fisher and family are home from Creal Springs.

Rev. W. K. Penrod, of the First Baptist church, leaves tonight for Pine Bluff, Ark., on business.

Mrs. Wm. Hunter, of Selma, Ala., arrived this afternoon on a visit to her father, Mr. George W. Edwards, on Monroe street.

Miss May Belle Maxwell, of Marion, left this afternoon for home after a visit to relatives here.

Miss Mayme Brown, of the Fulton Leader, was in the city today a guest of her sister, Mrs. B. Cox.

Mrs. A. D. Thompson and daughter, Miss Ada, returned this afternoon from Dawson.

Mrs. Burrell and daughter, Miss Edna, of Louisville, passed through the city this afternoon en route to Mayfield from Murray, where they had been on a visit.

Auditor C. B. West, of the Illinois Central, came in this afternoon.

Mrs. Will Kelley left this afternoon for Memphis.

Conductor Byers Robertson has gone to Ripley, Tenn., on a visit.

CLOSE CALL.

Mayfield Boy's Horse Killed Under Him This Morning.

Gee Wright, the 14-year-old son of Mr. Sam Wright, of Mayfield, narrowly escaped death this morning at the railroad crossing on Broadway in Mayfield. He rode a horse too near a moving train. The horse reared and plunged with the young rider, finally falling backward, and the boy being instantly killed. The boy fell from him and escaped with slight bruises.

AT THE PARK.

The largest and most enthusiastic Sunday crowd that has visited the Park this season was out last night to see the performance of the side-splitting comedy, "Three Hates." This play is strictly an up-to-date comedy, and if you wish to see three hats badly tangled up and then get straightened out again come out to the Park tonight.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair, warmer tonight.

LOCAL LINES.

—A child of Mr. S. S. Maxwell, of Missouri, who is visiting near Love laced died Saturday from congestion. The remains will be shipped home for burial.

—Today the Kentucky Manufacturing company began the manufacture of horse and cattle powders at its quarters under the New Richmond. It recently located here from Wack liffe, and Wm. Lawson, of Bardwell, is president, John S. Davis, of the same place, vice-president, and H. H. Lovins, of the city, secretary and treasurer.

—Mr. George Bondurant has returned from the Evansville and Henderson divisions of the Illinois Central, where he equipped all the cars with automatic couplers.

—Mrs. Sina Green, of the city, and John Tolison, of Mt. Carmel, Ill., are to be married here about the 15th of August and reside in Illinois.

—Mr. Ed R. Fries, 317 South Fourth street, this morning at the corner of Fourth and Court streets, found the crystal ball and a watch, the latter apparently gold. The loser can secure his property by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

—Yesterday was delightfully balmy; in fact the day was quite fall-like. Last night too was cool, and today has been equally as pleasant as yesterday. August will have to warm up considerably if there are such things as "dog days" this year.

—The weather wisecracks are predicting that the coming winter is going to be a very mild one. They say the coolness of the summer indicates this and that there are never two severe winters in succession. The people, however, remembering the past winter, are not likely to place much faith in any of these predictions.

—Esther lodge No. 1162, K. & L. of H. will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the Campbell building. A full attendance is desired. Refreshments will be served by the ladies.

—There were five additions to the First Presbyterian church yesterday.

—A camp meeting will be begun at Catlett's grove, near Edyville, Wednesday and continuing ten days. Rev. G. W. Young, of Winchester, assisted by local ministers, will be in charge of the meeting.

—The Belmont-Woods circus has moved to Eighth and Trinkle streets for a few days.

—The delightful weather of yesterday crowded the churches and the thoroughfares with people.

—The bill collectors will be abroad tomorrow. This is the most unpleasant fact which each recurring month brings.

—The Sun is the best advertising medium in the city. It is not only good to many homes, but is the best road paper in the city. It is in touch with the people and the facts stated are no wise surprising. If you want your money's worth and to get the bulk of the trade you will have to patronize the Sun.

—Ed Bohannon, the young man who was undergoing treatment of alleged divine healers for typhoid fever, is reported resting as easy as could be expected at the city hospital. He is now receiving medical treatment, and it is thought may recover.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tolleson, of Court street, this morning became the parents of a fine girl baby, their first born.

—The game between the L. A. L's and the Bee Hives at the park yesterday was quite exciting, and resulted in a victory for the L. A. L's by a score of 10 to 6. A large number of people witnessed it.

—The council will not meet in regular session until next Monday night. There will be no called meeting tonight.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

Wallace Strickland Falls With an Unloaded Pistol—Unal Result

Wallace Strickland, a colored youth not known to police fame, was out in the kitchen of a friend on Libel Row this morning fooling with a pistol and shot himself in the leg. He claimed he did not know it was loaded.

Officer Crow afterwards said that Strickland was going about flourishing the weapon and threatening to "kill him a negro," but he could not find him.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

Mr. Peter Cairnes, who has been on the railroad for nineteen years, to day resigned his position as foreman of the water supply on the Illinois Central, to take place tomorrow.

He is one of the oldest and best known railroad men in this section and will be greatly missed by the railroad men. He does not yet know where he will locate.

BARN DESTROYED.

Mr. Tom Hunt, who resides on the Mayfield and Paducah road, eight miles from the city, near Oak Grove church, had the misfortune Saturday night during the hard rain to lose his barn, together with its contents of corn, hay and other things. The structure was struck by lightning.

The J. K. Richardson, left for Evansville on time this morning with a good freight trip and 28 or 30 passengers.

The City of Gokonda and Elizabeth town, she leaves tomorrow at noon on return trip. Capt. Arthur Peck is in command.

The J. K. Graves is "off her base" about 60 hours. The Katterjohns, have a large loaded with 200, 000 brick that is consigned to O-ruthersville. If the Graves don't show up by tomorrow they will likely lose their trip.

Some fifteen or twenty people crossed the river on the ferry boat to the lake this morning to try their luck fishing.

The Dick Clyde, that sunk several months ago at Kuttawa, was raised and brought here yesterday in a badly wrecked condition. She will be taken out on the ways for general repairs.

George Simpson built the hull for the new gasoline boat owned by Messrs Harris and Peck to play as a to-weekly packet between Paducah and Kuttawa. The hull is a splendid piece of work, the dimensions are 60 feet length, 11 feet beam and 3 feet hold. It was put up at the foot of Ohio street where the upper works are being placed on it. Her machinery will be 20 horse power.

The Hustler is due tonight from Grand Rivers landing with a big trip of poultry and produce for city merchants leaves here tomorrow noon on return trip.

There were not many unemployed river men at their accustomed place of gathering at Monkey Wrench Corner this morning.

The fight opened yesterday in the Louisville and Cincinnati packet trade. The City of Pittsburgh entered yesterday by cutting the excursion rate from $1.50 to $1.00 round trip. The City of Louisville had made the rate of $1.50 which was thought to be very low, in fact cheaper than staying at home. The City of Pittsburgh struck the first blow, now who can name the winner in this contest?

The owners of the Cincinnati and Louisville packets will likely put the elegant new steamer City of Cincinnati on the opposition to the City of Pittsburgh leaving with her from both ends of the line.

The City of Cincinnati is about the fastest boat on the Mississippi river. When she first came out last season she beat the City of Louisville's time from Louisville to Cincinnati several minutes.

The Bob Dudley leaves here this evening for Clarksville. She is at least 8 or 10 hours behind time.

The City of Paducah from St. Louis passed up the Tennessee river last night with a very good trip.

The Dick Fowler and crew freshened by the regular Sunday rest, with new vigor and nice business left on prompt time this morning for Cairo.

Bill Gupion, with the reputation of being one of the best pilots of his day, is still in the ring, although not in active service for some time. He has not forgotten his ability, as he very often goes over his territory in the Ohio and Cumberland rivers. Only last week he went up to the head of Cumberland island and sound ed for better water than the packets had been running in, as the packets had been running down to the head of Cumberland island where there was only 30 inches, but Mr. Gupion sounded down the Kentucky shore where he contended the best was, which he found, finding 5 1/2 feet, making an abundance of water even with big trips on the packets.

A large party of Paducah who will take advantage of the cheap rates to Niagara Falls, leaving here next Monday taking the packet from here to Evansville, which will be the most pleasant route, as that route will give the party the advantage of a pleasant river trip instead of all rail from here. The river route people will take rail at Evansville, stoping at Bernhis have been and are being secured there for the Paducah river route people. Rates are equal both routes.

Mr. Saunders Fowler will likely be able to leave here by the 15th of August for Chicago and bring the pleasure yacht home which was built there for a club of gentlemen of this city.

A DEMOCRATIC PETITION.

Some of the Goebel benchmen are out circulating a petition to organize out circulating a petition to organize within the next ten days a democratic club, and petition pleading the signers to Bryan, Goebel and Joe Blackburn.

YARD LIMIT EXTENDED.

The Illinois Central has extended its yard limits, for the purposes made imperative by the increased business, from near the N. C. & St. L. crossing to Island Creek.

Don't be humbugged by high-priced barbers; go to Hays' 10c shop and get the best work.

BOTH WENT TO JAIL.

They Stole a Pair of Shoes and Were Held.

Cordie Brown and Hettie Ratcliffe alias McKee alias Black, two colored coke fiends, were this morning tried on a charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Horace Davis, colored, and selling them on false representation. The Ratcliffe woman was arrested at Princeton about a week ago.

They were both sent to jail to await the action of the next grand jury, the shoes having been stolen and sold for coke. Tom Davis, colored, charged with complicity, was acquitted. Judge Sanders fixed the bonds of the women at $200.

MISTAKEN TIPPING.

American Abroad Frequently Pay Too Much for Service.

An American recently arrived in London from a southern city, and being in haste to continue his journey to Paris, hired a cabman to take him on one of his errands. Handing the man a two shilling piece, he directed him to a certain number in New Bond street. After seating himself in the cab, the passenger waited for several minutes, expecting the horse to start. At last he left the cab and found the driver on the box inspecting the coin, which was double the usual fare.

"What is the matter?" asked the indignant traveler. "This seems to be a very small coin for so long a distance," was the surly response. The American smiled grimly and remarked that the cabman could drive him at once to Scotland Yard. As this is the headquarters of the police, the driver perceived that the American was not a man to be swindled. "I'll drive you to New Bond street," he remarked promptly. "If you wish to get to Paris, I'll give you as much more if you will tell me what there is in my general makeup that encouraged you to believe that I could be fool enough to allow you to cheat me." The cabman by this time looked sheepish and uncomfortable. "I took you for an American, sir," he said, "and thought I could work another shilling out of you. Here is one of the shillings you gave me and I am ready to drive you to New Bond street." The American had made two mistakes. He ought not to have paid double fare, and he ought not to have paid in advance. By violating the ordinary rules observed by people who hire London cabs, he encouraged the cabman to swindle him. The most judicious course for a traveler in a foreign country is to learn the customs of the people in it, and not throw away money by overpaying cabmen and tipping servants too generously.—Youth's Companion.

PROMOTOR

Of Jungfrau Railroad Dies with His Great Work Unfinished.

Zurich (Switzerland) correspondence Chicago Record: A man unique in Switzerland, Adolf Guyer-Zeller, has just been buried in the little manufacturing village of Bauma, which was very nearly owned by the deceased financier and promoter. A special train left this city this afternoon, bearing to Bauma, besides the remains of M. Guyer-Zeller, a number of members of the Swiss Federal Council, the entire Greek Society of Zurich, a delegation of city officials and about 300 friends and business associates. M. Guyer was the only railway king Switzerland possessed, and his death has caused the expected flurry in railway stocks here. It was due to his marvelous feat that most of the important railways of Switzerland were built. His greatest work was the Jungfrau railway, a project which has been pronounced impossible by modern engineers. When unable to find financial backing he decided to build it with his own money, and himself had defrayed all expenses thus far. A large part of the road is finished, but M. Guyer did not expect to complete it before 1903. Now the question is, who will finish his life work? Aside from his railways, he was greatly interested in manufacturing concerns. His death will be felt greatly by the Greek nation, whose consul general he was for the German and Italian cantons of Switzerland.

ALWAYS A DOUBLE.

For Persons Who Gain Social or Political Prominence.

Washington special New York Mail and Express: It has always been a notable fact in Washington that whenever a man or woman gained especial prominence in politics, war or society, there appeared on the streets of the capital his or her double. All the presidents have had their doubles, and Cleveland used to be greatly annoyed when told that Lawrence Gardner, who was connected with the Democratic national committee from the district of Columbia, was his exact image. Ex-Congressman Fowler of New Jersey took the greatest delight in being mistaken for President McKinley, and it is said he affected the president's style and dress to heighten the resemblance. One of the female clerks in the treasury department secured many invitations to social entertainments simply because she looked like Mrs. Cleveland, and certain hostesses wanted her presence at their functions to make the unwary believe that Mrs. Cleveland was one of the guests. There have been many families in human form of the various army and navy heroes of the late war constantly seen about Washington, and their doings have often caused stories to be circulated about the original, which at times, were embarrassing to the latter. But so far as known, the gripman who looks like Dewey had not traded on his resemblance, but seems content with attending to his work as Dewey does.
